- Stunning New Museum Building
- Engaging New Programs for All Ages
- Newly Installed Exhibitions on American Fine Art, Advertising Art and Mohawk Valley History

The Canajoharie Library's Art Gallery has been transformed into an outstanding museum with expanded exhibition and program spaces. Exhibitions now feature The Arkell Museum's remarkable collection along with changing exhibitions of works from other notable collections. The Arkell Museum's American painting collection includes 21 works by Winslow Homer, and significant paintings by George Inness, William M. Chase, Childe Hassam, Mary Cassatt, Georgia O'Keeffe, Robert Henri and other members of The Eight. Changing exhibitions also feature selections from the museum's Mohawk Valley History collection and the Beech-Nut archives of early twentieth-century advertising material.
