ANNUAL JURIED Art Show

The Art of New York

Located in the beautiful and historic Mohawk Valley, and now in its twentieth year of presenting regional artists, the Arkell Museum and Canajoharie Library extend a call for entries to the 2016 Annual Juried Art Show.

CANAJOHARIE LIBRARY

2 Erie Blvd., Canajoharie, NY 13317

518-673-2314

Juror – J. Bruce Schwabach taught for over thirty-five years as an Associate Professor of Fine Arts at Herkimer County Community College. A life-long devotion to art began with childhood trips to MOMA in NYC and progressed to travels throughout the US, and to France, England and Italy. He has found inspiration in the work of Bonnard, Turner, Van Gogh, Renoir and Monet. His accomplishments include creating sixty pastels and thirty oils of sites on the Erie Canal. Bruce maintains a studio in Little Falls, NY where he does what he has loved his entire life; work as a full-time artist.

Eligibility – Artists living in New York State may enter.

Media – Entries may be in any media. Maximum height or width for 2D work is 50 inches, 3D pieces cannot exceed 24 inches in any dimension.

$900 in Awards

- Best in Show: $300 cash prize and solo exhibit in one of the Regional Art Galleries.
- Two Juror’s Choice Awards of $100 each
- Dick Blick Art Materials – Three $100 gift coupons
- Golden Artist Colors – $100 gift card

Delivery and Retrieval of Works – Attach a copy of your entry form to the back of accepted pieces. Artwork must be ready to exhibit; no sawtooth hangers. The Arkell Museum and Canajoharie Library does not insure accepted work. Artwork must be picked-up between January 5th and 7th by artist or authorized representative.
