

Welcome to the 2011 season of the Canajoharie Concert Series. Through this series, we are bringing a wide variety of musical talent to Canajoharie for an affordable admission. Come joins us for great music in the Great Hall of the new Arkell Museum at Canajoharie!

Admission/Subscriptions

Tickets may be purchased in advance or at the door. Subscription pricing is available. Buy tickets in advance, or for the entire series, and the price goes down. Tickets at the door, when available, will be $8.00 for adults and $4.00 for children 10—17. Children under 10 are free. A 5% discount is offered to Arkell Museum members.

Seating

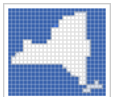

Seating is by general admission. House capacity is 180. Tickets will be available at the door subject to available seating.

The Venue

The Canajoharie Concert Series is held in the Great Hall of the new Arkell Museum at Canajoharie. The new facility opened to great acclaim in September 2007. The Arkell also provides film, lectures, workshops and family activities, as well as art and Mohawk Valley History exhibitions.

Location & Parking

Canajoharie is Exit 29 on the New York State Thruway. The Arkell Museum is located near the center of this small village, just 3 blocks from the Thruway exit. Parking is free.

NYSCA

This series is supported with public funds from the New York State Council on the Arts, a State agency, by private sponsors and through ticket sales.

Canajoharie Concert Series

Sunday, March 13, 2011, 2:00 P.M.

Gayle Ross with Jerry Exline

A Musical Tribute to Canajoharie performed by native soprano Gayle Snyder Ross and baritone Phil Eisenman with Jerry and Gail Exline.

Saturday, April 16, 7:00 P.M.

The Homegrown String Band

A family string band in the tradition of the Carter Family, they play "brand-new" old-time music in the form of reworked classics and original tunes.

Saturday, May 14, 7:00 P.M.

Christopher Shaw

Christopher Shaw grew up on Lake George, listening to the Adirondack songs and stories passed down by generations, songs and stories that he now shares with audiences around the world.

Saturday, October 1, 7:00 P.M.

Delaney Brothers

For 28 years and five albums, the Delaney Brothers have been perfecting their Bluegrass sound. See the latest version live at the Arkell.

Saturday, October 22, 7:00 P.M.

Annie & The Hedonists

An eclectic mix of acoustic, blues, standards, bluegrass, gospel, labor ballads and early jazz, Annie and the band make acoustic electric.

Saturday, November 12, 7:00 P.M.

The Ramblin Jug Stompers

78 rpm music for the 21st century: they are the premier jug band of New York's Capital Region.
