CANAJOHARIE LIBRARY

Annual Appeal

Your Support Matters!

Your gift will help inspire Museum visitors and Library patrons to see themselves and the world differently. Your gift to the Annual Appeal provides funds that will keep the doors open and make these activities possible:

- New Museum exhibitions
- Museum programs for school children
- New books and ebooks for the Library
- Workshops for adults and children
- Talks by guest speakers and curators
- Community Day programs
- StoryTime and Summer Reading programs
- Conservation and care of Museum collections
- Historic Building and Grounds Care

Where books and art meet!

Your generous donations to the Arkell Museum and Canajoharie Library Annual Appeal matter more today than ever before! The Library and Museum count on the support of our entire community and our supporters from across the country to fulfill our mission. Your contributions help us preserve and exhibit the Museum's collections, purchase books for the Library, and provide the necessary means to deliver high quality programming to the public.
